

National Black Arts Spoken Word Tour
and
National Black Authors Tour
In Conjunction with Queens Library's Langston Hughes Community Library
and Cultural Center
Presents

"WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO THE GOOD BLACK MAN"

An Evening of Film, Performance and Discussion
Monday, May 7, 2012 - 6 p.m.

"Conversations with Our Father"

A staged excerpt about the relationships of boys and fathers, performed by Maurice Brian Henderson, the critically acclaimed playwright of the Off-Broadway hit Play "Black Man in the Bottle" and popular New York Productions of "Black ManChild", "Anatomy of Black Manhood" and "Niggers".

"BABY MAMA DRAMA"

A Short Film preview by Keith Mungin, the title creator of the critically acclaimed and award-winning talk show, national touring staged production and bestselling print publication.

"Nigger for Life"

Reading by award-winning, critically acclaimed author Dr. Neal Hall

Panel Discussion with Maurice Henderson, Keith Mungin, Dr. Neal Hall, Cleous Young,
Author of "Mountain of Miracles" and Dujuann Williams, co-author of "Exodus: Love, Life and Liberation"
Moderated by Hosea Givan, President/CEO - I LOVE OUR YOUTH, Inc. (Queens, New York)

Langston Hughes Community Library & Cultural Center

100-01 Northern Boulevard Corona, New York 11368

718-651-1100 - www.libraryactioncommittee.org www.queenslibrary.org

Free and Open to the Public

This event is co-sponsored by Community Change - National Support Agency under the auspices of the National Black Male/Female Relationship Conference entitled "A Black Family Affair: Keep Love Alive"

For supplementary itinerary information please contact Maurice Henderson at (215) 987-7918 or mauricebrianhenderson@yahoo.com

Funding for these programs is provided through partial grants received from NYS Council on the Arts, NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, NYS Council Discretionary Grant-Hon. Julissa Ferreras, Queens Borough President's Office, Queens Library, Elmcreeper Alumni Association Inc, Library Action Committee of Corona-East Elmhurst, Inc.; private donations and contributions.

NYC DEPT. OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS